

Cancellation Policy

1. The booking fee is fully-refundable (less any bank/PayPal fee incurred) up to one month before the event.
2. Up to two weeks prior to the event a player can claim 50% of their fee (less any fee incurred).
3. Less than two weeks prior the booking fee is non-refundable.
4. Deposits are non-refundable.
5. If the megagame is canceled due to :
 - a. The fault of the venue owners – MM will refund as much as we can after recovering the hall fee and taking account of out of pocket expenses (such as printing costs and postage).
 - b. Circumstances outside our control such as freak weather conditions, riot, acts of terrorism, invasion by bug-eyed Martians etc – no refund will be due to players, though we would try to refund something if we can.
6. If something serious happens to the game designer/game materials at the last minute (such as a house fire destroying all the game maps and counters the night before the game). MM will try to run the game if possible. If a last minute cancellation is unavoidable we will reimburse players as much as possible after the hall hire and direct expenses have been met.
